

- » your own recipebook
- » grocery shopping lists
- » tips and advice
- » much more!

Home » Fun & Games » Fuel Up! Where to Eat On the Road

Fuel Up! Where to Eat On the Road

Need to re-fuel on the road but don't want to make a stop for the usual fast food fare? Amp up your road trip with some fun foodie pit stops that'll keep you truckin'.

 By Kiri Tannenbaum

 Slideshow on/off

10 of 16

Email
Print
RSS
Share |

I-64, Kentucky

Pit Stop: Homemade Ice Cream & Pie Kitchen, 2525 Bardstown Road, Louisville, KY, (502) 459-8184

While the name says it all, the Homemade Ice Cream & Pie Kitchen also serves a variety of freshly made deli sandwiches, pastas, salads, and soups. But the draw is their wide-ranging list of from-scratch pies that will sate any craving.

Road Tip: If you didn't have time to bake your pie, you can purchase whole pies. We recommend calling in advance.

photo credit: Jennifer Garrison

See more » pie ice cream kentucky road food

